PHILOSOPHY

Every layer is a footstep.

Vibrations of Silence.

I am an abstract painter working through silence and expression. Through layered compositions and rhythmic spatial flow, I create on canvas a place where inner emotion and outer reality enter into dialogue.

Each work carries an energy — like a vibration woven from layers of color and texture — that brings quiet resonance to the viewer's inner world. Every painting is born from a wish: that someone standing before it might feel, for a moment, a quiet happiness — a lightness in the chest they cannot quite explain.

My process involves building surfaces through acrylic paint, collage, washi paper, and hand-painted elements — each layer a decision, each decision a breath.
